Blend Requirement Manager

- The user creates blend requirements for required blend quantity based on the FG work orders schedules.
- Each blend requirement will have due date within which the blend quantity needs to be produced.
- In Make, a blend requirement can be created with or without providing the source information.

1. Accessing Blend Requirement manager screen
   Click on "Manufacturing --> Blend Requirement" as shown below

2. Blend Requirement manager screen has following sections.
   > Blend Requirements: Displays all the created demand numbers.
   > Recipe Details: Lists all the input items of select demand number.
   > Business Rules: This will be applicable for MPTC customers.
   > Quality Property Details: Displays Quality parameters.
3. Blend Requirement has following toolbars.
   > New button
   > View button.
   > Refresh button.
   > Delete button.
   > Create Auto Blend button.
   > Quality Template button.
   > Recipe button.
   > Close button.
4. Blend Requirement Manager
   > New Blend Requirement will be created using the below screen by clicking "New" button in Blend Requirement manager screen
   > Existing Blend Requirement can be viewed by clicking "View" button and the same requirement can be edited and saved
   > Existing Blend Requirement can be viewed by clicking "View" button and the same requirement can be closed in the Blend Requirement Detail screen
5. Click on "Check MRP" to check the inventory of the selected blend item and the availability of required raw material lots quantity for production