Work Order Production Return

Overview: Work order Production Return lists out all the Blends which have already been staged i.e. reserved and are currently present in the Staging Location. User can process a return to move back the staged quantity.

The following menus are available:

Menu	Usage
Create Inbound Order	To Create an Inbound Order, user can select multiple orders to create one Inbound order
Refresh	To Reload the data
Close	To Close the manager screen

Column	Descripotion
Lot No	The Staged Lot id
Lot Alias	The Alias of the Lot id
Container No	The Container No which was staged for blending
SKU No	The SKU associated with the Container
Item	The Blend Output item
Description	The description of the Output item
Qty	The staged Quantity in no of Pack
UOM	The UOM staged Quantity
Expiry Date	The Expiry Date of the SKU
SKU Status	The status of the SKU
Owner	The Owner of the Item

- The manager screen displays all the lots that are available in the production Staging Location.
- User will be able to return the lots from production staging location to warehouse.
- When 'Open Selected' button is clicked, an inbound order opens. User will have to create tasks and complete the transfer of the items from staging location to warehouse storage location.