

What are the important features in Load Schedule?

Load Schedule

- Load Calendar
It is the 2nd tab in Load Schedule Search Screen. This will show the load schedule references created against each calendar date.
blocked URL

- Screen Layout

blocked URL

- Load schedule can handle drop ship / direct shipment using a single screen.
 - New type 'Drop Ship' has been added in the list.
blocked URL
 - User can select vendor and customer information in the same screen.
 - In earlier version, two separate loads will be created with same load number for drop ship. Now, it is one single load which has both vendor and customer information
- Load schedule can have multiple purchase or sales contracts
 - Grid has been added to add one or more contracts in load schedule
 - In case of inbound, user can select one or more purchase contracts
 - In case of outbound, user can select one or more sales contracts
 - In case of Drop Ship, user can select one or more purchase and sales contracts
blocked URL
- There can be multiple items in a load. Contracts are optional.
blocked URL
- Single Load can have multiple Vendors / Customers.
 - It allows load to collect commodity from different vendors and bring it into your facility.
 - It allows load to deliver commodity from your facility to different customers.
 - It allows load to collect commodity from different vendors and deliver to different customers.
blocked URL
- Scheduling information and Loading instructions can be updated for each entity in a load and it can be printed in the shipment order.
 - Messages for each entity can be configured in the Entity screen
 - On selecting a vendor or customer, system auto-populates schedule and loading directions in these fields
 - User can modify and check 'Update' to update back in selected entity message.
blocked URL
- Hyperlinks to masters are provided in this screen for easy access
blocked URL
- Carrier Shipment Order Print
blocked URL
- Email format

blocked URL