

Why Create Account Groups

Reason	Details
To create financial statements without maintenance	Group is a required field so when you add new accounts you will be asked to place them in a group. If you setup your financial statements by group the account will be automatically added to your financial statements,
Segregated accounts for reporting	Groups create drill down from group total on financial reports to the detailed accounts that support them.