End of Day

This screen is used create End of Day. Some of the fields are only relevant to a specific store's register class but may not be relevant to another register class.

Field Description

Store - Use this field to assign a store that will be use in End of Day.

End of Day Date - Use this field as post date for sales transactions.

End of Day Type - Choose between Manual or Automatic. Manual will allow user to manually enter all the details in End of Day. Automatic will allow user to import (via shift close date) XML files from the register and editing is also possible.

Pages

- How to create End of Day
    - How to create Automatic End of Day
    - How to create Manual End of Day