

Account Template

The Account Template screen is used to create a new, import or even export account templates for primary accounts. This can be very helpful if you are creating another company and you would want the same set of accounts, saving you time from adding it all over again.

- How To Create New Account Template
- How To Import Primary Accounts for a New Template
- How To Export Primary Accounts via Account Template Screen