

User Roles

The User Roles screen serves as the maintenance screen for all the user roles within a company. User roles are set up to provide a template set of menu access permissions for each of its members. All users within iRely i21 must be a member of a user role. When you select a user role for the user, menu permissions established for that user role will quickly be applied. Then of course, you can edit the security permissions as necessary.

- How to Add User Role Type
- How to Duplicate a User Role
- How to Enable Administrator Rights in User Role
- How to Export a User Role
- How to Import a User Role
- How to Restrict Company Locations Permissions on a User Role
- How to Setup Control Permissions
- How to Setup Sub-Roles
- How to Setup the Screen Permissions
- How to Update then Apply User Role to a User